ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL

THIS MATTER comes before the court on Plaintiff's Motion For the Appointment of Counsel. (Doc. 4) 28 U.S.C. §1915(e)(1) provides that the court may request an attorney to represent any person unable to afford counsel. The Court has broad discretion to appoint counsel for indigents under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e), and its denial of counsel will not be overturned unless it would result in fundamental unfairness impinging on due process rights. Long v. Shillinger, 927 F.2d 525, 527 (10th Cir. 1991). In determining whether to appoint counsel, the district court should consider a variety of factors, including the merits of the litigant's claims, the nature of the factual issues raised in the claims, the litigant's ability to present his claims, and the complexity of the legal issues raised by the claims. Id.

At this point the Court sees no basis for the appointment of counsel, however the Court has not received a Martinez report in this matter. Until a Martinez report is received the Court is not in a position to evaluate the various factors identified in Long, and come to a conclusion regarding appointment of counsel under 28 U.S.C. §1915(e)(1). Accordingly, the Court orders Plaintiff's Motion For Appointment of Counsel (Doc. 4) denied without prejudice .
